OCTOBER 27, 2011

HELLO ESPRIT:

It's that time of year that all skiers start to look forward to the start of the up coming ski season. It is also the time of year that some ski clubs are just starting to plan their ski trip for the up coming season.

Under the direction of our trip coordinator, Peggy Vauss and her trip captains along with help from the executive board, our ski trips are planned and finalized in August of each year. Another tradition and practice that we have followed over the years is to hold our trip sign-up at our October meeting.

The purpose of the trip sign-up party, it gives us a chance to make a ten-dollar deposit for each trip that we plan to go on. It also helps our trip captains to better plan the following: type & size of the bus needed, how much food to buy, number of lift tickets to purchase, number of lesson and the amount of rental equipment needed. Having all of this information in advance leads to better-planned trips and more enjoyable trips for everyone.

I think that the biggest benefit that our trip sign-up parties offer is by making a ten-dollar deposit on each of the one day trips that you are going on enables you to pay the balance in payments rather than paying total in one payment. Larger deposits maybe required on two-day or weekend trips. If you did not get a chance to signup for trips at our October 11, 2011 club meeting, you will have a chance to signup at our November 8, 2011 club meeting.

Our first ski trip of 2012 is January 6-8, 2012; for 2012 we have rolled our annual one day "Family & Friends" ski trip into "Family & Friends & Ski better" weekend. This weekend trip will allow our beginner skiers to enjoy two days of skiing lessons. Our “Family & Friends & Ski better weekend” trip will also allow our more experience skiers two full-days to brush up on their technique.

Marcia and Ebony Hood have worked very hard to make our first “Family & Friends & Ski Better “ weekend trip fun and enjoyable for everyone, so lets make sure that we make every effort to fill the bus. For more information, please contact Marcia at (216) 402-6954 or Ebony at (216) 346-5887.

Our November 8, 2011 executive board and general body meeting will be held at Don & Carolyn Fenderson’s home located at: 2208 Middlefield Road, Cleveland Heights, Ohio 44108. If anyone need directions, please call Don at (216) 402-3240.

The executive board meeting will start at 5:00PM-6: 15PM and the general body meeting will start at 6:30PM-8: 00PM.

This change in meeting location is due to all of the meeting rooms at the Shaker Heights, Cleveland Heights, Maple Heights, and Coventry Road libraries being used for the November 8, 2012 election.

From December 13, 2011 to April 10, 2012 our monthly meeting will be held the second Tuesday of the month at the Shaker Heights Library.

In closing, I would like to thank the Fenderson’s for volunteering to host our November 8, 2011 meeting at their home.

Sincerely,

Chuck
